

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOP/GRADUATE CREDIT COURSE

"CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT IN FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES"

This two-day session will focus on all aspects of curriculum development for the family and consumer sciences education program. Topics to be included: Using the critical thinking/practical problem-solving in instruction and assessment; designing a competency-based curriculum which incorporates state and national standards; implementing VIMS; designing assessments; utilizing FCCLA programs and activities as an integral part of the curriculum; program articulation issues, and much more. Throughout the session, hands-on activities and projects will be used to assist participants in developing curriculum components and information to use in their local programs.

Two (2) hours of graduate credit for the Fall 2003 semester may be obtained through Central Missouri State University for participation in this course, or participants may elect to receive CEU's (continuing education units) for their participation. Graduate credit fees will be $160 for two (2) hours of credit. The fee for CEU's will be $20.00. Those taking the workshop for graduate credit will have additional assignments to complete and attendance at a follow-up session in October 2003 will be required. Those who are interested in earning graduate credit or CEU's should indicate so on the form below. REGISTRATION FOR AND PAYMENT OF GRADUATE CREDIT FEES AND CEU'S WILL TAKE PLACE THE FIRST DAY OF THE WORKSHOP.
